Dear Datin Romaizah,

I was pleased to meet with the seven teachers from Brunei participating in the BRIDGE Schools Partnerships Program in the margins of the recent ASEAN-Australia Special Summit. I would like to again extend my appreciation to the Ministry of Education for its assistance in ensuring Brunei's participation in the Program.

During the Special Summit, the Australian Government announced the one-off Australia Awards ASEAN Scholarships. Fifty prestigious Australia Awards ASEAN Scholarships will be offered to citizens of ASEAN countries to undertake postgraduate (Masters-level) study starting in 2019 in Australia. Five Scholarships will be offered to citizens of Brunei.

The Scholarships build on, and strengthen, Australia's ties with ASEAN countries, by offering fifty emerging leaders an opportunity to study at one of Australia's world-class educational institutions.

Applications close on 30 April 2018. I would welcome your assistance in disseminating the attached flyer to individuals who may be interested in Masters-level study.

Further information on the Australia Awards ASEAN Scholarships can be found at www.bruneidarussalam.embassy.gov.au.

I look forward to continuing to work with you in your new role to foster further links between our two countries through education.

Yours sincerely,

Nicola Rosenblum
High Commissioner

Australia Awards

Make a difference with an Australia Awards— ASEAN Scholarship Applications are now open

Do you want to be a leader in your field and make a difference? Apply now to gain a world-class education in Australia.

The Australia Awards ASEAN Scholarship provides you with the opportunity to gain an internationally recognised Masters-level qualification from an Australian university. It includes all the necessary support and funding to complete your study.

An initiative of the ASEAN-Australia Special Summit, the Australia Awards ASEAN Scholarship is a one-off opportunity to study in Australia in fields contributing to ASEAN's peace, prosperity and social development. Your career will benefit from new knowledge, leadership skills and the links you create in Australia.

On your return home you can make a vital contribution to the economic and social development of your country and ASEAN more broadly.

The application process is open and competitive providing equal opportunity to all eligible people regardless of gender, ethnicity and disability.

Applications for the Australia Awards-ASEAN Scholarship close on 30 April 2018.
